

UNC-Chapel Hill Impact in N.C. Congressional District 3

PUBLIC AFFAIRS
Federal Affairs

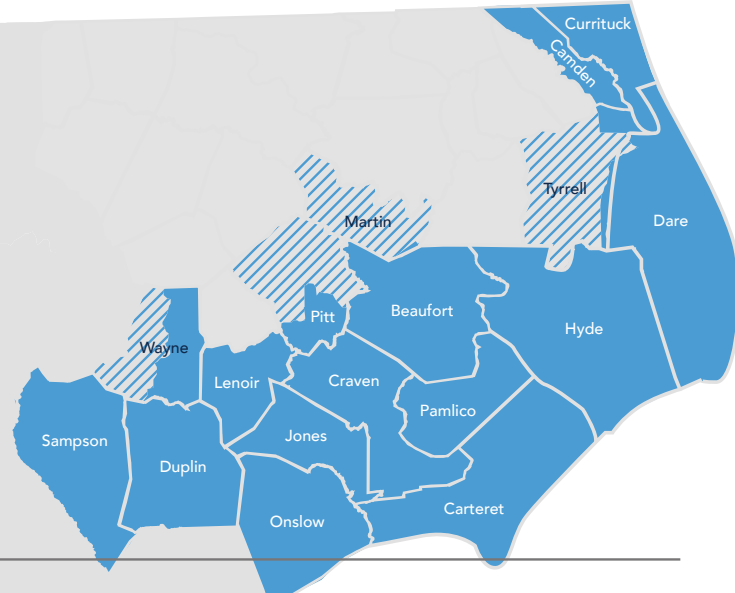

District Representative: Greg Murphy (R)

10th in Federal Research Expenditures Nationally

13th in Overall Research Expenditures Nationally

1st in Best Value for public colleges

Over $1.16B in annual research expenditures from all sources

Driving the State Economy

$2.6 billion total annual NC economic impact of UNC research & UNC startup companies

Preparing N.C.'s Workforce

19,743

Undergraduate Students

11,796

Graduate & Professional Students

12,827

N.C. Employees

274

N.C. businesses spun out of research at UNC-CH

$1.7 billion

in N.C. salaries

Delivering Affordable Education

$36.8 million institutional aid awarded to first-year class

$22.5 million Pell Grants awarded to 22% of undergraduates

20% first-generation college students

District 3 Snapshot

1,014 students from district 3 • 10,260 Alumni in district 3 • 89 employees in district 3 • $9.6 million payroll in district 3

- With funding from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, researchers in the UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School study how to enable precision agriculture.
- With funding from the National Science Foundation, UNC Carolina Population Center researchers generate and analyze data to project how future storms will affect migration, economic well-being, health, and ecosystems of coastal regions.
- Funded by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, the UNC Cecil G. Sheps Center for Health Services Research identifies and overcomes barriers to medical providers incorporating evidence-based treatment for opioid use disorder into their practice.

